New Officers Of Chamber Installed

George Scott Check Burned in Ceremony At Annual Dinner

New officers of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce were installed Tuesday night against a backdrop of speeches by experts who painted a picture of the future of Lemon Grove.

Larry Folda, building materials supply firm operator installed as 1960 president, described the community needs for more police protection; development of a community-wide retail promotion for self-identification; more co-operation with and from government agencies, and a street improvement program.

Folda replaced Bill Parker, telephone company executive. Parker reviewed the activities and accomplishments of the chamber's past year.

V. J. Dorman, local attorney and long-time civic leader, was installing officer. He installed Folda; Jim Spears, as vice president; Jesse E. Lee, former chamber manager, as secretary; and Bob Vaught as treasurer. At the same time, Miss Helen Moulton, the chamber's first full-time manager, was officially seated.

Dorman also installed Marshall Adams, San Bernicano and Ed La Salle as directors. Dorman then reviewed the history of the community and paid tribute to County Supervisor David Bird, who was among the guests.

As part of the ceremony, a check for $2,100 which the

Former Waitress Held In Stabbing Death

No Formal Charges Filed As Investigation Continues

Sheriff's deputies Wednesday still were investigating the Sunday morning stabbing of a 45-year-old Marysville man who was visiting his brother in Lemon Grove.

Dead is Howard Thompson, an unemployed farm worker.

His body was found on the floor of the home of

at 2640 Grange, Lemon Grove.

Officers also were investigating possible bookmaking activity, but said that "no immediate action would be taken."

Lt. Thomas Isbell of the sheriff's office said that there appears to be "absolutely no connection between the bookmaking operation and the murder."

Sheriff's officers reportedly found bookmaking equipment in the home of George and Ethel Thompson, 2640 Grange, Lemon Grove, while investigating the death of Howard Thompson, George's brother.

Isbell said that his office was "particularly interested in the bookmaking because it is extremely rare that such an operation should exist in the outlying areas at the edge of San Diego." He added that his office was "evaluating" the evidence found in the Thompson home, evidence which he said Mrs. Thompson, a former waitress, admitted belonged to her.

The investigation began early Sunday morning when George Thompson phoned the Lemon Grove Fire Department to say that his brother was lying unconscious on the floor. Firemen found Howard Thompson dead and contacted the sheriff's office.

Thompson had been stabbed to death, Mrs. Thompson, 47, was booked on suspicion of having murdered her brother-in-law.

Officers said that Howard had been dead for several hours when they arrived. An unemployed farm laborer from Marysville, he had arrived here a few days before for a visit.

Several scratches on his head and neck might have been caused by fingernails, the officers said.

Sgt. Robert Majors, in charge of the investigation, said that several knives found in the house were being checked to see if any one of them might be the murder weapon.

Mrs. Thompson disclaimed any knowledge of how her brother-in-law was stabbed, and on advice of an attorney refused to discuss the case with officers. Her husband earlier had told officers that he had slept all night and knew nothing about the death.

Mrs. Thompson said that Howard Thompson had moved to their home on Friday when her husband got three days off from work. She said that the

State Aid for Campo Road Project Okayed

SAN DIEGO (CNS) —

State aid in improvement of Campo Road through Casa de Oro was guaranteed Tuesday by the approval of an agreement between the state and the county by the County Board of Supervisors.

The proposed improvement stretches from Kenora Drive through Casa de Oro to Granada Avenue.

The road is to be improved under a special improvement district financed by property owners along the highway—but Campo Road also is a state highway and the state is to pay for part of the project.

Merchants who own property along Campo Road in the improvement area have said that the street is to be widened "considerably" and curbs are to be installed.

"This," said Casa de Oro Chamber of Commerce President Gilbert Ray when the plans first were approved, "will give us a real business district."

The proposal for widening Campo Road in the Casa de Oro district caused the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce recently to urge the county and state to widen Campo Road in the area west of Casa de Oro on to the Freeway.

Spring Valley and Lemon Grove Show Big 'Business Population' Growth for Past Five Years

The "business population" in Spring Valley increased 131 percent in the past five years.

Similarly, Lemon Grove's business population increased 36 per cent. By contrast, the widely-lauded business' growth in the county as a whole increased 19 percent.

These figures were revealed this week by Dean D. Maddux, regional manager for Dun and Bradstreet, credit reporting firm.

Maddux said in a special report that in 1959 there were 39 businesses in Spring Valley and that today there are 90.

In Lemon Grove, there were 160 businesses in 1955 and there are 217 today.

These figures do not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security agencies, etc.

Camp Fire Girls Aim At Big Peanut Sale

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley are in for an onslaught by the Camp Fire Girls.

Some of the little lassies have vowed that this year they will sell their weight in peanuts as their part in the annual fund-raising drive.

The girls and their adult leaders are looking forward to two of the year's most important Camp Fire Girls events—both on next week's calendar.

First red letter day of 1960 is the annual meeting of the Council's adult leadership set for 6:30 Monday night in the Banquet Room of the San Diego Club. Scheduled are election of officers and board members, and presentation of special awards for the past year's achievements.

Second big date circled on the Camp Fire calendar is Friday, when 4,000 Camp Fire Girls and their little sisters, the Blue Birds, open the eighth annual peanut sale. Proceeds from the two-weeks' sale will go into the capital building fund to be used for facilities and improvements needed for Camp Fire Girls throughout San Diego County.

Camp Fire Girls, whose ages range from 7 to 16, have set their sights this year on their most ambitious sales event ever attempted. They're out to sell a total of 135,000 cans of peanuts at 50 cents each for a profit of $30,000, of which $4,300 would be returned to participating groups as a reward for their success.

Any car owner who has failed to get his renewal notice by January 10 and who has changed his address during 1959, should take his last year's registration card to the DMV office nearest him well before the deadline rush begins, it was stressed.

"What it all adds up to," McCarthy said, "is that it will pay everyone to shop early for their license plate renewal, and especially anyone with a special registration problem."

'Avoid the Rush,' License Man Urges

The easiest way to save an hour of time during 1960 will be to renew your automobile license early, according to Robert McCarthy, state director of motor vehicles.

With more than 6,500,000 car owners applying for license renewals during the next 30 days, lines will grow longer and longer as the February 4 deadline approaches.

"Employees of the Department of Motor Vehicles, who must serve this great army of automobile and truck and trailer owners, are prepared to do their utmost to provide prompt and efficient service," McCarthy said. "It will be much easier for them to help car owners early in the period, especially those with a special problem, such as an out-of-state or foreign car to be registered in California for the first time, or where a car owner has moved from a former address without notifying the Post Office or the Department of Motor Vehicles."

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

The national pill scandal, touched off by Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) would have attracted more attention if it had not followed so closely on the heels of the teevee quiz fix scandal and the radio disk jockey payola shakedown.

Not to be discussed here, but certainly equally scandalous, are the emanations of certain newspapers, dishing up news so partisan that they would find it hard to qualify as a genuine newspaper, even under the dictionary's loose definition.

Be that as it may, the pill affair was brought to light by Kefauver by chasing some old charges already under study. He followed the same pattern he used to attract presidential-candidate attention to himself through his crime, steel and auto investigations. No constructive legislation was produced by those mish-mashes.

The price of pills is too high. Many drugs are so expensive that some wags say it's not the professional care that wrecks the family pocketbook, it's the prescription. High prices of drugs does unquestionably have a serious impact upon the national health. Many elderly persons of fixed income just can't afford some of the more expensive "wonder" drugs.

The burden of proof that the ailing public is not over-charged rests with the drug manufacturers. Already some have come up with figures intending to reveal high cost of research and development.

It is almost a certainty that drug prices will come down as a result of the Kefauver investigation and because public opinion is on the side of the ailing.

There is also a possibility that present high pill prices are justified and this may be proven by investigations somewhat less political in nature.

If the Keef's charges are well founded in fact, government intercession will undoubtedly give the pill user financial relief. Whether the charges are true or not there is bound to be an unhappy side effect because proponents of socialized medicine have now been handed one of the most potent prescriptions ever issued.

The San Diego Department of Public Health is making an unprecedented appeal to this community and others throughout the county.

Polio, it warns us, is not dead. Mrs. Peg White, spokesman for the Department, reports that polio incidence is on the rise.

In 1959, 32 cases were reported in San Diego County. Six were reported in the 30 days prior to the holiday season. Up to that time six deaths had occurred.

Statistically, poliomyelitis cases had just about doubled and polio deaths have tripled. Dr. J. B. Askew, Director of Public Health, properly alarmed, urges all persons under 40

Something New? Board Wonders

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—County officials this week were scratching their heads and wondering if Lemon Grove is going to be the scene of something new in recreational devices.

The puzzlement came from an application for establishment of a trampoline center on Imperial Avenue, east of Quarry road.

Trampolines are canvases on springs, used by acrobats, and Charles J. Rafferty is applying to the county for a special use permit to put in eight such trampolines, in the open air, behind a five-foot fence.

A public hearing on the application is slated for Friday morning's session of the County Planning Commission.

PAYMENT MADE

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Payment of $2,725 for a parcel of land needed in the improvement of Broadway, Lemon Grove, was approved Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors. The grant deed for the land was executed by Art S. and Dorothy Leitch, with the money going to Security Title Insurance Co.

New March of Dimes Launches Campaign

More than 250,000 individual appeals for the new March of Dimes campaign to prevent crippling diseases have been mailed to San Diego County residents, according to Ross G. Tharp, county campaign director.

The direct mail pieces were prepared by more than 300 volunteers who began addressing, stuffing and sealing them last summer. Mrs. A. J. Bard, of San Diego, has been in charge of the project.

Each appeal contains an envelope which gives area residents a personal way to participate in the March of Dimes' program of prevention and research. This year, funds will go to fight birth defects and arthritis as well as polio.

"As leader of the fight against crippling diseases," Tharp said, "the March of Dimes must have more support than ever to finance its vital programs of patient aid and medical research and to train urgently needed disease fighters."

As funds become available to the county chapter, he said, financial assistance will be provided to children under age 18 who suffer from arthritis or certain birth defects. As in the past, victims of paralytic polio (there are more than 300 in the county) also will be aided.

INTERNATIONAL SURPRISE Verna Lee Savary, 13, was a bit surprised the other day when she received a large New Year's card in the mail. It was covered with stamps. And it was from Gamal Abdel Nasser, president of the United Arab Republic. Miss Savary, a graduate of St. John of the Cross school and now a student at St. Joseph's High School in Orange, lives at 8243 Jefferson, Lemon Grove. She wrote a letter to Nasser more than a year ago, and received an answer from him then, but there had been no correspondence since then. The card this week was printed in both Arabic and English and said: "The President Gamal Abdel Nasser extends his best wishes . . . for the New Year."

Juvenile Delinquents To Get Surprise If Move Approved

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The county's juvenile delinquents are going to face a sad surprise if the County Board of Supervisors goes through with a proposal made last Tuesday.

Inmates of Juvenile Hall should be charged for room and board, Supervisor Frank Gibson told other Board members. And Assistant County Counsel Bertram McLees Jr. said such a charge is possible under legislation voted this year.

Gibson reported that Santa Clara has a fee of $3.50 per day. The local Board is to get a report from its chief administrative officer on a fee.

Guidance Department Services Explained

A review of the services of the guidance department of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District was provided to the board of education Dec. 28, by Dr. Margery P. McIntosh, director of guidance.

Dr. McIntosh described general services, special programs and the testing program in her report to the board.

Five kinds of services were described, ranging from general psychological study and help for individual children, to remedial reading, speech therapy, home tutoring and lip reading.

She told of six classes being conducted for slow learners and of four special classes for severely mentally retarded youngsters. Two classes are conducted for deaf children, she said, and special help is being provided for several visually handicapped pupils who remain in their regular classrooms. Ten pupils attend the cerebral palsy program in El Cajon in an exchange program, she said.

Provisions for special attention to gifted youngsters were also described briefly, including the identification of the gifted and a "clustering" and enrichment program.

The place of readiness testing, achievement testing and mental testing in the school district's education program also was described.

Traffic Controls Approved by County Board

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Three measures affecting traffic in the Lemon Grove area were approved last week by the County Board of Supervisors, upon the recommendation of the county traffic committee.

The Board voted controls at the intersections of Olive Street with Pacific Avenue and with Church Street. A. F. Sonka made the application to the committee for action.

"In view of the prevailing traffic and roadway conditions and past accident experience at these intersections, this committee believes that some minimum control is desirable to assign the right of way," the committee reported to Supervisors. The latter body then approved the recommendation of yields at Pacific and Olive for north and southbound traffic and for east and westbound traffic at Olive and Church.

A yield intersection at Osage and Drexel drives and Enfield street, for east and westbound traffic, was also approved. The request for action here had been made by J. C. Shokry, of the California Highway Patrol.

In its third action, the Board of Supervisors voted to stop parking on Sweetwater Avenue, between Broadway and Lamar Street. This was first suggested by G. S. Mayse, of the California Highway Patrol.

JOB WELL DONE — Robert Simoneau, left, United Fund division chairman, congratulates Byron Netzley, 2324 Golden St., Lemon Grove, chairman of the Heartland Government and Education Group, for his achievement in reaching 100 per cent of his goal. ity dealers and real estate brokers.

Therefore, the figures for businesses actually would be higher than those quoted.

The Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book lists all manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit.

The Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book, which is the world's largest regularly published volume, is revised every 60 days to keep the business listings current. During the past 60 days, nearly 70,000 new names were added to the Reference Book and almost 65,000 were removed. During this period, credit ratings were changed on more than 110,000 business enterprises.

As one phase in revising credit reports and keeping them up-to-date, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., through its national network of offices, writes every year to all businesses in the Reference Book to request their financial statements. This year, these requests are being sent to approximately three million businesses—the corner grocery store worth a few thousand dollars as well as to businesses worth millions.

When the owner or officer of a business enterprise, or his accountant, fills out and mails his financial statement to Dun and Bradstreet, it becomes a part of the credit report on his business and a factor in determining the credit rating of his business.

Each Reference Book listing, which includes the rating, is a summary of the information contained in the Dun and Bradstreet credit report. The report includes the following: a history of the business (who owns it, who runs it, and how long it has been operating); a description of what the business does and how it does it; a financial section which usually includes the latest financial statement; and a record of how the business pays its bills.

While credit reports are primarily used by business men who want to evaluate the credit risk of a business before shipping or selling, insurance underwriters also use credit reports to review risks, rates, and coverage for fire and other types of insurance.

Must you file a federal income tax return for 1959?

If you are under 65 and had gross income of $600 or more, or over 65 and had gross income of $1,200 or more, you must file a federal income tax return regardless of whether you owe tax or not, and it does not matter whether you are a man, woman or child; you are required to file a return by April 15, 1960.

It may be that you had income of less than $600 (or $1,200) and income tax was withheld from your paychecks. In this case, you should file a tax return. It will show that you owe no tax and Uncle Sam will refund the withheld tax.

Also, if your income was from self-employment and was more than $400 you are required to file an income tax return and report and pay your self-employment tax even though you do not owe income tax.

These columns are intended to help you in a general way to know the questions about your income and deductions and to give information of a general nature so you will be aware of the savings that may be open to you. Each taxpayer has individual circumstances and individual problems.

If you have a specific problem you should consult the accountant of your choice as possible so that he will have plenty of time to prepare your tax return properly.

years of age to get inoculations of Salk vaccine right now so as to build up an immunity before warm, polio weather returns.

Of the 32 cases of polio last year, four were infants under one year of age; nine were children in the one to four-year age bracket; three were between five and nine; seven were ten to fourteen and one was a teenager in the fifteen to nineteen year-old group. Three adults between 20 and 29 years of age contracted it and five persons got it between the ages of 30 and 39.

Surprisingly, twice as many females became afflicted as did males.

Five persons got polio after taking the shots. Three of these suffered no residual paralysis. Two had only moderate paralysis.

Every doctor's office is set up to administer Salk vaccine. The charge is invariably modest. For those who simply can't afford it, the doctor will provide the inoculation without charge.

Dr. Thomas Early, a local physician, is one of those who has been extremely active in local PTA-sponsored "polio shoots." In these affairs doctors volunteer and the vaccine is provided by the PTA group for $1, the latter being the only charge made. Dr. Early said these "shoots" are always successful and gratifying. Preventative treatment pays dividends in health and money, too, he says, but not as many people take advantage of the inoculations as they should. Most of the people who fail to get the shots sincerely intend to but just don't get around to it, he says.

"Just like the reason you give when you are asked why you haven't had a physical checkup lately," Dr. Early said.

Our youth is sadly disillusioned with what we as adults and parents offer as a heritage and legacy, California Governor Pat Brown said recently in a speech in San Francisco. They need, and we should supply, lasting values and moral direction tailored for a modern, rushing world, the governor added.

"Youngsters are intrigued by idealism and yearn for deeper adventures in living than the mere pursuits of comfort and luxury. They seek challenges bigger than themselves," he said.

"Rigged television quiz shows, rigged livestock exhibitions, clouds of suspicion over boxing, perjury by matinee idols, payola for disk jockeys, loyalty to country derided as softness, and a general cynicism for what has been called the old-fashioned virtues of justice among men and charity for all, has contributed to their disillusionment and restlessness," said the governor.

"Youth wants respect, responsibility as well as freedom. It looks for certain controls.

"The role of the father as head of the family should be asserted and respected," he said.

"The responsibility for directing the idealism of youth falls upon us as individuals, upon the great private institutions of American life, and also upon government.

"Our youth," he pointed out, "have not lost their fire, their enthusiasm, their verve nor their idealism. Perhaps some have merely lost their way!

"That is where we of the older generation must step into the picture," he concluded.

To all of which we say "amen."

County to Fete Alaska With Big New Fair Exhibit

DEL MAR.—San Diego County will pay tribute to the forty-ninth state, Alaska, with the colorful exhibit now being assembled at the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fairgrounds for entry in a series of fairs throughout the state.

The exhibit will not only promote the agricultural phase of San Diego industry but also the annual exposition and San Diego County Fair to be held at Del Mar June 24 through July 4. The exhibit will be entered first in the Imperial County Fair February 26 to March 6, in competition for cash premiums.

Planned by M. E. Salsberry of San Diego, manager of the exposition's famous Flower Show, the San Diego County exhibit will consist of an igloo 10 feet in diameter and eight feet high. An eskimo mannikin, replete with furs and parka, will be driving a dog sled and a youth will be fishing through the ice. Artificial snow will be used throughout the exhibit, which measures 20x20.

Choice avocados, beans, walnuts, citrus fruits and vegetables from San Diego County's farms will enhance the exhibit and serve to inform fair visitors of the diversity of the county's agricultural industry. The exhibit also will be entered in the State Fair at Sacramento, Pomona, Orange County and other festivals.

chamber issued to George Scott, San Diego Department store owner, in repayment for a loan, was returned by Mr. Scott and the check was burned. Eugene Ageno, official of the Scott firm made the presentation for Scott who was out of the city. Scott is a chamber director and loaned the money to pay some of the expenses for the recent incorporation attempt. He offered to cancel the debt if the chamber raised an equal amount by the end of the year.

Ageno said the contribution was "to further strengthen (the chamber's) program to give even greater competition to downtown San Diego and to College Grove."

A panel made up of James Figard, manager of five shopping centers in Los Angeles area; Mervin Blum, general manager of the College Grove Shopping Center, and David Speer, county road commissioner and engineer, provided the remainder of the evening's program.

Figard, whose five centers do a gross volume of $86 millions a year or three times the annual gross sales of all of Lemon Grove, said the chamber should acquire a professional study to ascertain the resources of the business community. Then, the community should promote. "Owners should make a promotional contribution to the merchants who occupy his premises," Figard said. "Promotions should then be planned a year in advance."

Sixty-one percent of our customers come from outside the communities our centers are in," he said. "Business firms can prosper on the traffic which centers attract . . . but they must be alert merchants who are continuously promoting sales," he warned.

Mervin Blum said the shopping centers are in San Diego to stay "whether you like it or not."

"We are opening the first regional center in San Diego. This will be followed by the May Center. Another, smaller center will be built at Grossmont and other one is scheduled for Chula Vista."

Blum said 48,000 cars a day presently pass College Grove on the freeway and another 28,000 a day travel College Avenue. "When we open we expect to handle 120,000 cars a week in our parking lot."

"We'll spend $100,000 the first year in radio, television, newspapers and billboards just telling people College Grove is here," Blum said. "Additionally, individual tenants will promote their own business."

Blum said 49 leases already have been signed by the 60 potential tenants. He said the center would do $50,000,000 a year gross volume.

"We're coming to College Grove to do the finest merchandising job we know how," he said. "We're going to be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights to accommodate our shoppers and we advise local merchants to do no less," he said.

The center will have 616,000 square feet of selling floor space and will meet its scheduled opening date early in July, Blum said.

Dave Speer, county road commissioner, said the long-fought-for Broadway improvement plans and specifications would be handed to the board of supervisors early in March. In the interest of acquiring the rights-of-way to meet urgent community needs the "time for palaver and negotiation will be over. Condemnation will be the next step, he indicated.

Speer said the four lane Broadway project, which will have left turn islands, will cost $700,000 which represents one-third of the county's entire annual road budget. The project will go to bid early in March; the improvement will be completed early in September, he said.

Max Goodwin, newspaper publisher, was moderator of the panel program.

Approximately 100 chamber members and friends attended the ceremony. It was held at the Lemon Grove Bowlero.

two men went out Saturday afternoon to get a load of wood and stopped off "to get a few drinks."

She said that later in the evening her husband fell asleep on the sofa and Howard wanted to use her car to go downtown. She said that she refused to give him the keys and about 11 p.m. took the keys, went to her bedroom and went to sleep.

The next she knew, she said, her husband awakened her and told her that Howard was unconscious on the floor.

"I don't have any idea what happened," she said.

Miss Diane Murawski
Wed to David Arnott

Miss Janice Diane Murawski was married December 27 to David S. Arnott III in an afternoon wedding at the bride's home, 870 Dell Anne Place, San Diego 14.

The bridegroom flew home from his Air Force station in France for the wedding. It had been planned that Miss Murawski would fly to France and that the couple would live there after the wedding. But changes in living conditions made it necessary for a cancellation of these plans.

Instead, the new Mrs. Arnott will stay here until her husband is transferred from his present station. They honeymooned in San Francisco.

The bride wore a brocaded ballerina-length gown for the wedding. It was a bustle-back gown with illusion veil trimmed in alcon lace with a head piece of orange blossoms. Her corsage was made of white carnations and white orchids.

Mrs. Joan Mantyla was matron of honor. Her gown was gold colored lace and she carried white carnations and gold ribbons. Phillip Seward was best man.

The Rev. Don Tinsley of Four Square Community Church performed the double-ring ceremony. The home was decorated with poinsettias and white candles. There were 50 guests.

Junior Women
Set Meeting,
Plan Dinner

The Lemon Grove Women's Club Juniors will hold their regular business meeting on January 12 at 8 p.m. at the Women's Clubhouse.

Final plans will be made for their spaghetti dinner and variety show on January 30. One other important business matter that will be discussed is the contest for the Leading Teen of the Year—Teenage Miss.

Applications have been sent to Mount Miguel High School for any junior or senior girl who has maintained a B average and is active in school clubs and clubs outside of school such as church groups. The winner from Lemon Grove will then compete with 21 other girls from San Diego District sponsored by other Women's Club Juniors.

The first prize to be awarded will be one year's tuition to the college of her choice from The Marston Company. She then would compete with 15 other finalists for state winner. The Federation of Women's Club Juniors sponsors this contest to bring before the communities the fact that there are many good qualified teenagers who believe in juvenile decency, rather than juvenile delinquency.

Local Club Has
Use For Old
Christmas Cards

A plea for used and left-over Christmas cards was made this week by the Drifters, a group of Lemon Grove women who send the cards to ailing people in this area and overseas.

According to Mrs. Randolph Morse, 8354 Golden Avenue, Lemon Grove, two large boxes were sent this year to Korea. More than 500 cards were cut and donated to the Santee Geriatrics Hospital. These were placed on trays at every meal during the holiday season.

Cards may be left at the Lemon Grove County Library or at her home on Golden Avenue.

The Drifters, she says, derived its name from the fact that the members "drift" once a month to each other's homes to eat and do the kind of charity work which seems to bring happiness to a great number of people.

Typical of the signs being installed by the State Division of Highways at all highway entrances to California is this sign on U.S. 40 east of Truckee. The Highway Patrol officer pointing to it is Sgt. Francis H. Snyder. The new 65-mile speed limit for automobiles became effective January 1.

'We Mean Business,' Warns Traffic Cop

Strict enforcement of the 65 mile an hour speed law which went into effect January 1 is promised by Bradford M. Crittenden, Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol. "The California Highway Patrol supported the new speed limit bill when it was before the legislature last spring because we believe that it will help reduce the slaughter on our highways caused by uncontrollable, runaway speeds," Crittenden declared. "Now that we have the law on the books, I am determined to save every life we can possibly save through its strict enforcement."

more than $5 million were awarded during the first six months of fiscal 1959-60 at the college, Love said.

Two major structures, a men's gymnasium costing $2,461,500 and the engineering building costing $2,592,500 accounted for most of the expense, Love said.

Work on the gymnasium was begun in October by the B. O. Arsen company. A completion date has been set for October, 1960. The building will contain more than 92,000 square feet and will seat 5,000 spectators.

Construction on the engineering building is scheduled to end in June, 1961. This structure also will contain more than 92,000 square feet. The contractor is the Trepte Construction Co., Inc.

Other items in the awarded contracts included final equipping of a recently finished library building, landscaping and irrigation for a new physics building, and antenna systems and parking facilities for the now partially occupied men's and women's residence halls.

During the balance of the fiscal year it is planned that contracts will be awarded for an addition to the commons building, creation of 300 additional parking spaces, and additional maintenance facilities.

Marty Furgol Again Hopeful In SD Open

Colorful Marty Furgol, the high-strung man from Sherman Oaks, Calif., has high hopes of giving the other professionals reason for talking to themselves again in the San Diego Open Golf Tournament, Jan. 28-31.

Fidgety Furgol, who talks to himself and swings an imaginary club as he takes his long strides from tee to green, was first at the pay window twice at San Diego during the 1959 tourney.

He collected $250 for being low pro in the professional-amateur event preceding the Open at Mission Valley Country Club, and was $2,800 better off four days later as he beat out five other pros in a final hole battle.

Another $2,800 check will be waiting for the winner of this year's San Diego Open, again at Mission Valley CC, but low professional in the pro-am event, Jan. 2, will be better off this year.

Sponsors of the Open, the Junior Golf Association, added to enriching the West Coast segment of the tour by doubling the pro-am purse, raising it from $2,500 to $5,000.

The American Cancer Society is the only volunteer agency supporting comprehensive year-around programs of public and professional education, service to cancer patients, and research.

GONE AGAIN — Ronald Servant, 19, home for 15 days during the holidays, has returned to his NIKE base in Castro Valley. A 1959 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Servant of 1695 Bakerville St., Lemon Grove.

Burning Hours Without Limit, Fire Chief Says

The legal burning hours have no limits in the Spring Valley Local Fire Dist. until the annual fire season starts April 15, Chief Berger said. However, he pointed out, due to little rain much of the terrain is dry and weeds and brush should be burned with caution. Keep a hose with running water handy at all times. Now is an excellent time to get all yards cleared of weeds, Berger said. Tumbleweeds should all be disposed of before the seeds become rooted again, Berger said.

Two fire calls and two ambulance calls were answered by the Spring Valley fire department for the week of Dec. 22-29. Small children playing with matches was the cause of a fire at 9105 Rosedale, at 11:53 on Dec. 22. The flame which was confined to a mattress and springs of a bed, was extinguished outside the house, according to Frank Berger, fire chief. He said he found evidence which pointed to the children and matches. He gives a friendly warning to parents with small children to keep matches "out of reach" of the youngsters. There have been many cases in the past few months of children playing with matches and starting fires, many of them costly, Berger said.

Mrs. Virginia Holmes of 3349 Golf Dr. was taken to Sharp Memorial Hospital in the S.V. ambulance Dec. 24. It was an O.B. case and it is understood she gave birth to a baby girl on Christmas Day.

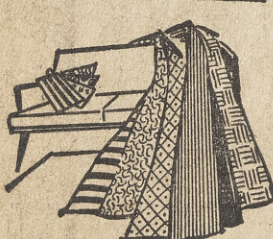

A leaky oil heater at 2080 Sweetwater Ave., caused a slight fire on Christmas Day at 12:10 p.m. Chief Berger says all persons with such heaters should check them thoroughly in the early fall prior to the cold weather.

Bill Brown of Jamul who suffered what was possibly a heart attack on Dec. 29, had been taken in a station wagon toward San Diego. The relative stopped in Casa de Oro at a doctor's office, but Brown was dead on arrival. Fire Chief Berger said the S.V. Ambulance was called.

Organizations Asked to Sponsor

Organizations in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area are being invited to sponsor a candidate for 1960 California Citrus Queen to reign over the "Golden Anniversary" National Orange Show in San Bernardino, April 28-May 8.

The contest is open to girls from Tulare, Riverside, Orange, San Diego and San Bernardino counties and the eastern portion of Los Angeles County.

The new California Citrus Queen will represent the state's famed citrus industry.

Contest finals will be held Thursday evening, March 17, at Azure Hills Country Club near San Bernardino. Six finalists—one from each county—will be selected as good-will ambassadors for the National Orange Show. One will be queen but her name will not be revealed until the exposition's opening ceremonies, April 28.

Major award going to the 1960 Citrus Queen will be an all-expense vacation trip. Last year, Queen Dorothy Mummert of Encinitas won a roundtrip flight to Honolulu.

Contest Chairman Fred J. Burmester said it has been necessary to limit the contest to 42 entries.

Contestants must be unmarried, not less than 17 nor more than 22 years of age at time of contest, bonafide residents of one of the six counties and sponsored by a recognized chamber of commerce or service organization.

According to the American Cancer Society, surgery and radiation, used singly or in combination, can often cure early cancer.

County Allocated $2,414,981 Aid For Its Schools

SACRAMENTO — San Diego County has been allocated $2,414,981 to be received during the remaining months of the current school year for its schools.

This money is a special apportionment from the State School Fund for handicapped children's classes, driver training, and transportation of pupils. It is in addition to funds previously allocated for the operation of schools during the year.

Fifty-seven counties (Alpine County doesn't qualify) will share the $40,485,797 in special funds, according to Roy E. Simpson, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Those funds are part of the $638 million in state support this year. San Diego County will receive $1,562,954 to help it pay for special classes and transportation for physically handicapped and mentally retarded children.

Another $653,860 will go to help pay for pupil transportation, and $158,823 as the state's share in driver training programs. Small additions for other purposes are included in the apportionment, Simpson noted.

4-H FIELD DAY

A county-wide 4-H Field Day will be held on January 16, starting at 10 a.m. at the Grant Junior High School in Escondido, states Bena Johnson, home advisor, University of California. A judging activity will be held in the morning. Dr. J. S. Pahopin, supervisor of home economics in the San Diego schools, will speak on "Careers in Home Economics" at the afternoon session.

Seventh Decade Dawns in County With Officials Seeing Problems Due to Growth of Entire Area

By Archibald MacPhail
SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The county government of San Diego begins the seventh decade of the 20th century with the continued problems that go with the area's growth and a new worry that unemployment may put a drain on county funds for increased relief rolls.

Politically, it is a factor of interest that the terms of a majority of the Board of Supervisors expire this year.

The three Supervisors whose four-year terms run out have declared they will seek reelection, with the possibility now that all three will be returned to office in the June primary, as no opposition to any is beyond the "talk" stage.

Those whose terms run out are David W. Bird, Frank A. Gibson and Robert C. Dent.

Bird, a five-term veteran, represents an area that covers the southern and eastern parts of the county, except for what is in the city of San Diego. He is regarded nationally as an outstanding county executive, having served as the president of the state association and as an officer of the national association of supervisors.

All three of those seeking reelection are well aware, and they agree on it, that San Diego County's continued growth is not likely to permit any reduction in taxes for some time to come, for providing facilities for the added population takes money faster than increased valuations can boost tax income.

Probably the biggest problem arising out of growth now facing the entire county, in both incorporated and unincorporated areas, is sewage disposal facilities. In many areas, the problem has become a crisis.

Another county executive declared that a hard, long series of rains could make drainage the county's worst problem.

But the prospect that bothers county officials most is that curtailment of defense projects will boost unemployment.

Homer Detrich, director of the county's welfare department, said Thursday that the budget for general relief for 1959-60 is almost $500,000. These cases are cared for entirely out of county funds, so any added loads would come altogether out of the local county treasury.

Should there be the unemployment predicted, demands for general relief could boost needs by 50 per cent, it has been indicated. The county will then have to take the money out of unappropriated reserves or curtail its relief program.

Detrich said the severity of the drain would depend upon the adequacy of unemployment insurance and the speed with which unemployed persons left the area for places where jobs were more plentiful. He also said that the "personal service" groups also showed unemployment rises when there were lay-offs in industry.

With an election in the offing, there is no indication at present of any bond issues or charter changes to be made on the ballot.

At their last meeting of the year, Supervisors voted a criticism of a story in a City of San Diego daily newspaper that bonds might be submitted for erection of a new "operations center." This would take the place of the facilities at Pacific Highway and Rosecrans, where the state is planning to take land for freeway purposes.

Supervisor De Graff Austin said the state would pay the county for the land and provide funds for a new center, so that no bond issue was even being contemplated.

Supervisors have asked T. M. Heggland, chief administrative officer, for a report on possible charter amendments to go on the ballot. Heggland is now working on such a list, most of the items being the requests of heads of county departments to meet technical requirements.

The charter was written more than a quarter of a century ago, any many officials feel it should be revised to permit more efficient operation under changed conditions.

However, it is regarded as unlikely that even the requested charter changes will go on the ballot. Preparation of amendments has been asked before, and nothing has been done, so with more urgent problems facing Supervisors in 1960, the guess at Civic Center is that another year will pass without any action.

The Mail Box

Editor:

I read with interest your article "The Dimmer View" for December 31, regarding the "failure" of the citizens of Lemon Grove to see the virtues of the proposed recreation district.

In this article you tried to tell the voters that they had made a mistake in their actions. You predicted this on the thesis that juvenile crime abounds where the citizens have not made adequate provisions for organized recreation programs. You also warned the voters that by not making more dollars available, cases of juvenile crime would increase.

All of these theories have been used many times within the past thirty years to create large recreation districts. To pay for golf links, hunting clubs, gyms, pools, country dance halls, and huge salaries for administrators. But the facts show that as we spend more money for these things, juvenile crime goes up at a faster rate. It was stated by one social scientist as we spend more the rate of juvenile crime goes up faster on a proportion basis.

In fact one social scientist made the statement that a good case could be made that our increased spending in this field was "buying" more juvenile crime. Another report of the mid-fifties reported that as many as 60 per cent of the hard core juvenile criminals in certain surveyed areas were members of organized recreation groups, with very active programs and frequent meetings.

Locally it is noted that many of the more "noted" characters are top members of organized teams in schools. In fact some of the top contenders for honors have been leaders of the "rough-and-ready" boys in our community. By community I wish to include San Diego, too. It might also be pointed out that these persons, though not very intelligent, do get the best scholarships to colleges. But, I might add, nothing in the literature for the proposed district claimed the virtue of making people more intelligent, just more healthy and more contented therefore less anti-social.

In fact, there are so many examples, the people no longer believe that all that is necessary to make a girl or boy good is to put them on a "team."

The problem seems more basic than this recreational district thing. It is a matter of goals on the local, county, state, and national level. The criminal is still the king of our movies, T.V., song, and play. For instance, a local school administrator had to have a conference with "local officials" to see if a player, then in jail, would be allowed to play football if he could get out on bail.

Another school administration suspended a top athlete before a meet, but to take effect after the meet, so that the student could compete for honors. In both cases society ducked the whole moral issue. This is not lost on the hero hungry boys and girls.

Dollars for a recreation program is going to do very little to stop young criminals when a "rock and roll" person or an athletic delinquent gets more footage in the news than is given a top scientist or teacher. It is a matter of importance, and the "Billy-the-Kids" and "Robin Hoods" are more important than sputniks or their builders. But we made this choice for them, they did not make it for themselves. They only reflect our more mature attitudes. By our I mean that of society. The teachers, ministers, newsmen, et al have been in the fore creating false "gods" for our young people. They will change when we change, and all of the many recreation district are not going to make the difference. It is a matter of attitude, not dollars.

Work is an honorable thing. Many of the boys and girls complain that they do not need recreation as much as they need some sort of a job where they could earn some money for themselves. But again our social system denies the youngsters the jobs that they need to hold up their heads and be something. The economic system is not geared for this sort of thing. We can spend millions on "planned" recreation, billions on crime prevention, and create any type of socialistic program as long as we do not "create" work which pays money to the worker.

As a matter of fact as I was returning from Lemon Grove today I saw dozens of Mexican nationals working in a garden area. One the same road I saw a group of teen-agers throwing rocks at a sign advertising homes. I am sure that most of the boys would rather be earning money some place.

Many people are going to continue to vote against any form of recreation district. Some who just voted against it this time are going to get out and work against any such thing in the future.

Thanks for reading this, Seth J. Carpenter

PS—Many of my students at Mount Miguel have told me that the youngsters are not happy with the youth center here in the local area. They tell the class in social studies that their elders take it away from them too often for "adult" affairs. The director might be asked the age of the people using the youth center. I have never been down that way so I only know what they tell me. sjc.

Let Reader Carpenter, a teacher of social sciences at Mt. Miguel High School, better distinguish between "regimentation" and "recreation." Parks and playgrounds create no regimentation nor do they contribute to crime.

Whether a need exists for recreational facilities is indicated in Reader Carpenter's final paragraph, a plea for a recreational facility for youth. The Editor

EXPANSION — Clyde Noble, owner of Noble's Market at Sweetwater Avenue and Jamacha Road, looks at construction work on addition to his store building. Almost surrounded by such subdivisions as Spring Valley Estates and other proposed tracts, Noble's corner is being caught up in a business boom.

In the 2,400-square foot addition, 1,000 square feet will serve as added space in the store and the rest will house a new laundry and barber shop. Construction is expected to be finished by the end of the month.

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

Once we had a friend who had a baby. "Itchy itchy itchy coooo!" she used to say, chucking the poor little rascal under his undistinguished chins.

And we used to wince. She used to phone Paula at all hours to tell her how "little Richie" was holding his head up and him only three months old, how little Richie was eating practically by himself now and him only 10 months old.

And we used to wince. And she used to bring pictures of little Richie waving a rattle, little Richie, smearing oatmeal in his hair, little Richie pointing at a cow, little Richie doing all sorts of things that somehow seemed absolutely phenomenal to her.

And we used to wince. "If we ever have another baby," Paula used to say, "I certainly am not going to act like that. Who cares about her silly little baby?"

"He's just like any other baby!"

And I used to nod in agreement.

And that, of course, was many, many months ago.

In the meantime, babies seem to have sort of degenerated as a breed. I have looked at quite a few of them in the past year and they all have either too many teeth or too few; are too fat or too lean, have too little hair or too much, learn to walk too early or too late and either make too much noise or are too quiet.

And in the meantime, I have become a father again. A boy. He's 10 months old now.

He's the smartest, best looking, earliest walking, little guy you ever saw.

Next time I see you I'll show you some pictures. There's this one, see, where he . . .

It's a little early in the season to see signs of new life in your garden but, watch carefully and try to do the necessary things at the right time.

Watch for the swelling of the fruit buds on apricot trees. The fruit buds come first and when they start to swell, you may know you can spray safely with a stable emulsion containing lime, sulphur and oil.

I do not recommend a straight lime-sulphur spray but the one I refer to is bonded in oil and it will not do any injury to your apricots.

The value of lime sulphur is to prevent brown and green rot, and an oil emulsion checks mites, spiders and scale . . . insects which have a tendency to spread disease. A plain lime-sulphur or copper spray will not control these insects, so for a fine apricot crop this season, use the lime, sulphur-oil emulsion at the right time.

Church Asks Permit For Buildings Along Campo Road

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A public hearing on a special use permit asked for a church project on Campo Road, 600 feet west of Rogers, between La Mesa and Spring Valley, will be held Friday morning before the County Planning Commission.

The Warner Memorial Evangelical Brethren Church plans a church with a 75-foot tower, a church school, a social hall and a parsonage. Architect for the buildings is William Rosser, the application states.

HOLY COMMUNION

Holy Communion will be celebrated at both worship services at Lemon Grove Lutheran Church this Sunday.

☆ Our judgement will always suspect those weapons that can be used with equal prospect of success on both sides. Therefore we should regard all force with aversion.

— William Godwin

New Beginnings—The great declaration of Genesis 1:1—"In the beginning God," speaks of the source of all power, creativity and good. Let us resolve to permit God to be the "beginning" of our living this year, so that our lives will have power for creating that which is good.

Three Cub Scouts of Pack 47 presented the colors and led in the pledge of allegiance at the Monday night meeting of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. The boys, under the direction of assistant Cubmaster Leonard Hayes, were Michael Rauscher, Buddy Roth and Dennis Degan.

Boy Scout Troop 47 held its Christmas party in the Friends Community Church, Spring Valley, on Dec. 22. Entertainment included group singing by the Scouts and their fathers and mothers. Other entertainment was an accordion solo by Tommy Danner, a duet by Bruce Masse and John Skinner, a solo by five year old Carol Perkins and more songs by seven year old Gordon Perkins and sister Carol, who joined in with Tommy Danner. Committee chairman Frank Hale also sang a solo. There was an exchange of Christmas gifts and refreshments were served.

The Dec. 18 meeting of Cub Pack 47 of Spring Valley was held in the Spring Valley Junior High School, with Den 5 holding the opening ceremonies. Den 6 sang a song, Den 2 gave a yell and Den 7 presented a Christmas skit.

The Bobcat ceremony was held for Bruce Larsen, Tommy Jones, Tommy Drake, Duane Drake, Greg Schneider, William Lux and Chuck Kimmell.

Webelos ceremonies were held for Robert McFadden, Art Larsen, Bill Calter, Gary Miller, Palme Gudmunson and Mike Skeritt.

The honor flag went to Den 4.

College Student To Be Sunday School Speaker

James Sharer, a student at San Diego Junior College and president of the Wesley Fellowship at the First Methodist Church of San Diego, will speak to the Junior Sunday School class of the Foothills Methodist Church, Sunday at 10 a.m. He recently returned from the Belgian Congo, where he was part of a "work trip" group.

The purpose of his talk to the Sunday School class (which will be enhanced with colored slides) will be to help juniors learn of the life in the Congo villages and how Christianity has helped the people to live happier lives.

Rev. James King, pastor of the Foothills Methodist Church, announces a new young adult group will meet for the first time Jan. 14, at 8 p.m. in the church. Rev. King will lead the group, which was formed to fulfill the need of fellowship and to inquire deeper into the Christian faith. Rev. King extends a cordial welcome to all young adults in the area.

Supervisors Use 'Legal Dodge' To Delay Meeting

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A legal "dodge" to permit the County Board of Supervisors to avoid holding a regularly scheduled meeting on Feb. 16 was voted at last Tuesday's Board session. Supervisors voted to get around the State Public Meeting Law so that they may attend a session of the National Association of County Officials, being held in San Diego on Feb. 15 and 16.

The Board members said they wanted a way to postpone their regular Tuesday session, Assistant County Counsel Bertram McLees Jr. told them they could not legally adjourn their previous meeting for more than a week.

The Board then agreed it just wouldn't turn up for its February 16 session. Members voted to instruct its staff, if no members were present, to call another meeting on Feb. 17.
